MICROFILM READER

The Riley County Genealogical Society has purchased a DuKane microfilm reader for the use of its members. To show the member's appreciation for the use of Mrs. Woldt's private genealogical library and also for her genealogical talents, the reader was presented to her as a gift to augment her genealogical facilities.

OUR FOREFATHERS

THE NEUSBAUM FAMILY

Winifred Louise (Neusbaum) Slagg (Mrs. Charles M.) is a member of the Riley County Genealogical Society whose ancestors came to Riley County at an early date. Mrs. Slagg was raised a few miles northwest of Manhattan on Pheil Creek and has long been interested in the early history of the area. This interest has led her to write a very comprehensive history of early day Riley County. This history is just now available. It contains nearly 500 names. A copy may be obtained from Mrs. Charles M. Slagg, 1006 Poyntz, Manhattan, Kansas 66502 at a cost of $4.50 for a hard cover book.

1. The first member of the Neusbaum family to come to America was Henry, born 17 Oct 1799, probably in Germany. He later resided near Basel, Switzerland in a small village named Nussbaumen in his honor. This village is located near the boundry where Switzerland borders France and Germany. He died 11 July 1866.

Henry and his wife Sarah emigrated to America in 1833. Sarah was born 14 Jan 1787 and died 30 October 1866. They first settled in Maryland, soon moved to Chambersburg, Penna. where all the children except John later married and raised their families. Children of Henry and Sarah Neusbaum all born in Switzerland were:

- i David, born 21 Oct 1809.
- ii Jesse, born 17 Oct 1811, died age 17 as a result of being kicked by a horse.
- iii Lydia, born 12 Oct 1813, died 12 Jun 1880.
- iv Moses, born 12 Aug 1815.
- v Elizabeth, born 23 Nov 1817, died 19 Jan 1825.
- vi Henry, born 15 Oct 1819, died 13 Aug 1895.
- vii Jacob, born 5 Nov 1821, died 16 Feb 1910.
- viii Christina, born 2 Jan 1824, died 4 Aug 1910.
- 2. ix John, born 21 Feb 1827.
- x Daniel, born 13 Oct 1828, died 10 May 1910.

2. John Neusbaum was born 21 Feb 1827, died 30 Oct 1908 and is buried in Sunset Cemetery, Manhattan, Kansas. He, the son of Henry and Sarah Neusbaum, was the only one of his family to leave Pennsylvania and go west. When relatives in Pennsylvania were asked why none of the others went west with him they all replied that the others were all married and didn't feel free to gamble the well-being of their families. John went first to Ohio where he met and married Clarissa Shively of Youngstown, the daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Crum) Shively. Clarissa was born 6 Nov 1833 and died 9 Feb 1894, buried in Sunset Cemetery in Manhattan. John took a herd of cattle to Iowa and bought a farm in what is now within the city limits of Des Moines. In 1872 they came to Riley County, Kansas and homesteaded northwest of Manhattan at the head of Pfeil Creek.

Ref: Birth and death dates from grave stones in Sunset Cemetery.

Children of John and Clarissa (Shively) Neusbaum were:

- 3. i Mary Anne Neusbaum, born 13 Mar 1856.
- ii Ada Ann Neusbaum, born 5 Apr 1858, died 4 Dec 1949, unmarried.
- 4. iii Hannibal Lincoln Neusbaum, born 10 Sep 1860.

3. Mary Anne Neusbaum, born 13 Mar 1836, died 9 Jan 1940, buried in Sunset Cemetery, the daughter of John and Clarissa (Shively) Neusbaum; married 11 Sep 1879 Francis Byron Kimble, better known as Barney Kimble who was born 9 Jun 1850 and died 31 Jan 1920, the son of Samuel and Mary Ann Kimble. Barney Kimble came from Pennsylvania to Kansas with his parents when he was nine years old. They settled on a farm on Wildcat Creek west of Manhattan. Barney became a self educated man. At age sixteen he started out to work for himself. He gradually increased his farm acreage until he owned 2000 acres. In 1911 he built his stone residence at 720 Poyntz, Manhattan, where he spent the remainder of his life. Children of Francis Byron and Mary Anne (Neusbaum) Kimble were:

- i Delos, born 24 Aug 1880, died 19 Dec 1901, married Emma Geisman.
- ii Rosa, born 9 Sep 1882, died 20 Mar 1884.
- iii Baby, born 28 Aug 1885, died aged 1 year 6 months 1 day.
- iv Venus, born 1886, died 1925, married Bruce S. Wilson.

Ref: Birth and death dates from gravestones in Sunset Cemetery, Manhattan. Log Cabin Days by Riley County Historical Society - 1929.

4. Hannibal Lincoln Neusbaum was born 10 Sep 1860, died 19 May 1926 and is buried in Sunset Cemetery, the son of John and Clarissa (Shively) Neusbaum. He married in Manhattan 15 Mar 1888 Julia Adams Livings who was born 25 May 1867 and died 12 Jul 1961, the daughter of Francis and Martha Lucretia (Harris) Livings. Julia came to Kansas in 1884 to visit her sister Carrie Harris (Livings) Flatter in Enterprise. She remained to teach the school in Industry the next year before she married H. Lincoln Neusbaum who had homesteaded neighbor to his parents on Pfeil Creek northwest of Manhattan. Besides tending his own farm he lived on the

-4-

Casement Ranch where he was employed by the father of the well known cattleman, Dan Casement. Children of H. Lincoln and Julia (Livings) Neusbaum were:

- i Winifred Louise, married Charles Mervin Slagg, deceased.
- ii Vernon Livings, married Blanch Ensley, reside in Natoma, Kansas. Their daughter Winifred married Wilfred Hoskins. They live in Manhattan.
- iii Ninetta, married Hal R. Cress and they reside in Manhattan.
- iv Howard Leigh, deceased, married Carrie Young.
- v Carrie, married Loy G. Tabor. They reside in Brighton, Colorado.
- vi Mildred, married Lyle Reed. They reside near Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Slagg is descended from the Howland and Tilley families of the Mayflower immigrants; of the Adams Family of Braintree, Massachusetts; of Governor Thomas Hinckley of Plymouth Colony; and of Governor Thomas Mayhew of Martha's Vineyard as follows:

1. John Howland married Elizabeth Tilley in 1625. Both the contracting parties and Elizabeth's parents were Mayflower pilgrims.
2. Hope Howland married Elder John Chipman in 1646.
3. Hope Chipman married John Huckins in 1670.
4. Mary Huckins married Nathan Basset in 1690.
5. John Basset married Jean Mayhew in 1735.
6. Ruth Basset married Jacob Norton in 1760.
7. Shubael Norton married Love, daughter of Major Mayhew Adams, third cousin of President John Adams. Shubael and Love were married in 1791. Major Adams was a great grandson of Governor Hinckley and a great, great, great grandson of Governor Mayhew.
8. Lucy Norton married Everson Livings in 1836.
9. Frank Livings married Martha Harris in 1864.
10. Julia Livings married H. Lincoln Neusbaum in 1888.
11. Winifred Louise Neusbaum married Charles Mervin Slagg in 1921.

POLLY OGDEN CHAPTER, DAR, MANHATTAN, KANSAS

Polly Odgen Chapter of DAR, Manhattan, Kansas was named for the ancestors of the organizing regent, Mrs. E. B. Purcell (Elizabeth Hoyt). Mrs. Purcell's maternal great grandmother, Polly Odgen, was the wife of Rev. Ebenezer Cole. He and his father Elisha Cole were 'minute men' in the 7th Dutchess Co., NY. Militia. Mrs. Purcell was descended from Stephen Hopkins of the Mayflower as follows:

Stephen Hopkins and wife Elizabeth Giles
 Constance Hopkins married Nicholas Snow
 Stephen Snow married Susanna (Dean) Rogers
 Hannah Snow married William Cole
 Elisha Cole married Anne
 Elisha Cole married Hannah Smalley
 Ebenezer Cole married Mary (Polly) Ogden
 Nathaniel Cole married Ann E. Woolheizer
 Margaret Cole married Ephraim Hoyt
 Hannah Elizabeth Hoyt married Edward B. Purcell

Mr. Purcell came to Kansas from Pennsylvania in 1866. He immediately became active in the affairs of the community; was well known as a friend of the unfortunate. His department store carried the largest stock of goods west of the Missouri River towns: dry goods, hardwares, groceries, clothing, boots and shoes, patent medicines, flour and feed, and farm machinery. His slogan was stamped on most everything he sold as "E. B. Purcell, Merchant and Banker. Dealer in everything". Mr. Purcell was also a leading railroad man and treasurer of the Board of Regents of Kansas State Agricultural College.

OUR FOREFATHERS THE FAIR, SMITH, BROWN FAMILIES

William Ross Brown and wife Jean Frances Smith and Helen Louise (Smith) King, all members of the Riley County Genealogical Society, have contributed the following from their family records on their ten ancestral lines that came to Kansas between 1858 and 1878.

These families first settled in counties neighboring Riley County. Today many of the descendants are living in this part of the state.

THE FAIR FAMILY

1. Charles Fair born about 1816 in Maryland, migrated to Indiana where he married Sarah V. Simon of that state. They were early settlers in DeKalb and Noble Counties and later Allen County. Charles Fair died in 1867 and is buried in Hometown Cemetery. Children of Charles and Sarah V. (Simon) Fair:
 - 2
 - i Sylvester, born 1840, married Harriet Wood;
 - ii Minerva, born 1842, married Jacob Treesh;
 - iii Charles Valentine IV, born 1844, married Sarah Virginia Hiner, daughter of early Wabaunsee County, Kansas settlers;
 - iv Anna, born 1846, married John D. Hosler;
 - v Augusta, born 1848, married David Worman;
 - vi Catherine, born 1851, married Pearce Peter Hosler;
 - vii Mary Rachel, born 1853, married Jacob Grogg;
 - viii Louisa, born 1855, married Daniel C. Walborn (Pioneer settlers of Reno County, Kansas;
 - ix Jonathan, born 1861, married Wilhelmina Dice.
2. Sylvester Fair, son of Charles and Sarah V. (Simon) Fair was born 1840 in Butler Township, DeKalb County, Indiana; died 1910 near Alma, Wabaunsee County, Kansas; married in 1863 in Noble County, Indiana, Harriet Wood, daughter of Alva and Polly Wood, natives of New York State. Harriet was born in 1845 and died in 1925 in Manhattan, Kansas. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fair are buried in the Wabaunsee Cemetery.

In 1870, Sylvester Fair and his wife and two small children migrated to Kansas. They homesteaded a few miles south of Wamego, two miles from the Henry Edward Pugh home. The two men exchanged work - hauling lumber for the new homes as well as helping each other prepare the new land and raise the crops, never realizing that some day Sylvester Fair's great grand daughter, Jean Frances Smith, would become the wife of William Ross Brown, great grandson of Henry Edward Pugh. Children of Sylvester and Harriet (Wood) Fair:

 3.
 - i Benjamin Franklin, born 1864 in Allen County, Indiana, married Martha Ellen Roark;
 - ii Wiley Winfield, born 1866 in DeKalb County, Indiana;
 - iii Lester, born 1871 in Wabaunsee County, Kansas, married Lucy Schraub (lived in Geary County, Kansas);
 - iv Clara Louisa, born 1873 in Wabaunsee County, Kansas;
 - v Maria, born 1877 in Wabaunsee County, married William Cyrus Moreland (Lived in Geary County);
 - vi Child.
3. Benjamin Franklin Fair, son of Sylvester and Harriet (Wood) Fair was born in DeKalb County, Indiana in 1864 and died in Manhattan, Kansas in 1935; married in 1885 Martha Ellen Roark (Rowark) who was born in St. Clere, Jackson County, Kansas and died in 1957 in Manhattan, Kansas. Martha was the daughter of Zachariah Mitchell and Mary Elizabeth (Bronson) Roark. Zachariah Roark, a native of Greyson County, Virginia, came to Kansas Territory from Indiana with his parents in 1859. They settled in Jackson County. Mary Elizabeth Bronson came in 1858 with her parents, Ebenezer Allen and Elvire (Dwelly) Bronson to Jackson County, Kansas. Natives of Syracuse, New York, the Bronsons lived in Illinois and Wisconsin prior to coming to Kansas. Members of each family are buried in Shields Cemetery north of Delia, Kansas and in the Circleville, Kansas Cemetery. Children of Benjamin Franklin and Martha Ellen (Roark) Fair, all born in Wabaunsee County:

- i Hattie May, born 1886, married John Stout; she still lives in Manhattan;
- ii Martha Myrtle, born 1888, married James Albert Stewart;

"TO AND FROM JAMES AND CATHARINE PARSHALL"

Frank N. Parshall of Manhattan and his brother, Homer of Kansas City, have recently published a Parshall history consisting of 400 pages and some 65 pictures. This book takes the Parshalls back to 956 A.D. in England. It required the Parshall brothers 14 years to do the research on the 600 descendants of James and Catharine. Some of the collateral surnames in the book are: Gardiner, Herrick, Stratton, Youngs, White, Dietz, Garlock, Kummer, Klock and Weiner to name a few.

OUR FOREFATHERS THE SANGER - GOODNOW FAMILIES

Dr. Ralph G. Sanger, Head of the Mathematics Department in Kansas State University for 21 years, from 1946 until his retirement as administrative head in 1967. He continued on the faculty until his death in March of 1968. Dr. Sanger received his BS, MS and PhD degrees from Chicago University where he taught 18 years before coming to Kansas State University. He was an accomplished pianist and at his death willed his music, records and grand piano to the KSU Music Department.

Dr. Sanger is descended from early New England families through both his mother and father, including the Goodnow family of Massachusetts, the ancestors of Isaac T. Goodnow, first acting President of Blue Mont College, now Kansas State University.

1. Richard Sanger of Hingham, Mass., came from Norfolk, England on the "Confidence" 11 April 1638. He died 26 Jan 1661. Among his children was:

=39=

2. Richard Sanger II.
2. Richard Sanger II was a blacksmith in Sudbury, Mass.; moved to Watertown, Mass. in 1639; died 20 Aug 1690 in Watertown. He married Mary Reynolds, daughter of Robert³ (George², Richard¹ Reynolds) and Deborah Rider. Newspaper Clipping: 1859

On Friday morning July 22nd, Harvy Munger, an old citizen near Springboro. He was sick two weeks and bore his sufferings with remarkable patience. He had reared a large family, and seven of the children were with him much of the time during his last sickness.

Religious exercises at the funeral, by Rev. S. Williams of Lebanon. Text: Psalms xxxvi, 37. The deceased was born near Middlebury, Anderson Co., Vt. in the year 1799. He came to this country at about the age of seven years, and always lived in the same neighborhood. He had for many years two chronic ailments, dropsy and gravel, but died of bilious fever, brought on by too great exposure during the very hot weather.

We all know of the heroic mother of the Revolutionary War who valiantly defended her hearthstone, who was the nurse, doctor, teacher, spinner and religious guide for her family, keeping alive the home spirit through these crucial years, who reigned with pride in the small domain of her household and never knew that her loving service was
 'household drudgery'.
