THE 1969 ANNUAL DINNER MEETING

The 1969 Annual Dinner Meeting attracted the usual large number of interested persons from Manhattan and the surrounding area. New ideas were obtained from the exhibits of the members showing various styles of records, charts, and hand made Coats of Arms.

The guest speaker for the evening was J. Robert Wilson, attorney and abstractor, of the firm Charleson and Wilson, Bonded Abstractors of Manhattan. Mr. Wilson urged everyone planning to do family research in a county courthouse to first contact the local Abstractor or Title Company. Such organizations have a complete surname index and complete land index of all persons in that county who have had any business transactions that would be recorded in any of the courthouse records. Mr. Wilson's surname index comprises some 35,000 names.

If your ancestor was ever involved in the Probate (Surrogate) Court, the County Court, the District Court, Register of Deeds, Power of Attorney, etc., his name is in the index with notations as to the book and page number in all the offices where information of this individual will be found. Mr. Wilson very graciously invited anyone to feel free to come to his office and use the indexes.

This was a new idea to most of those attending this meeting, something which his listeners had never known, and for which they are indeed very grateful.

Also four members of the Society on invitation gave some of the highlights of their experiences while doing their family research. All in all, it was a very worthwhile evening.

OUR FOREFATHERS: THE SWART FAMILY

Mrs. B. Frank Myers, Abilene, Kansas, a member of the Riley County Genealogical Society, became interested in the Nanninga and Swart families, parents of her first husband, William G. Nanninga. The Nanninga and Swart families have been long time residents of Manhattan and Riley County. Many letters were received from relatives in Germany. No one in the family had remembered how to read or write German. Wishing to correspond with the German cousins, Mrs. Nanninga-Myers studied German and later spent three months each of 1960 and 1963 in Germany doing research on the family history. This is a brief story of the members of the Swart families who lived in or near to Manhattan, as taken from Mrs. Nanninga-Myers history.

First Generation

1. Hinderk Martens Swart, born 1784 and died 1859, married Gepke Tholens. They lived in Mark, East Friesland, Germany, bordering Holland. They probably were really Hollanders as they originally spelled their name Zwart which was later Germanized and written Swart. In the Great Church in Emden, Germany the name of Menso Swart, 1660, was inscribed over the east Portal. The church was destroyed during World War II. Children of Hinderk Martens and Gepke (Tholens) Swart, all born in Mark, Germany were:

- i Geerd Dirks, born 1808, died in military service in 1831.
- ii Grietje, born 1811, died 1816.
- iii Wilhelm, born 1812, died 1832.
2. iv Martin Hinderks, born 1814, died 1899.
- v Grietje, born 1817, married Herman Meyer.
- vi Frouke, born 1819.
- vii Gepke, born 1822, married Klaass Jan.
- viii Engel, born and died 1824.
- ix Jan, born 1826, died 1845.

Second Generation

2. Martin Hinderks Swart, son of Hinderk Marten and Gepke (Tholens) Swart was born in 1814 in Mark, Germany and died in Leonardville, Kansas in 1889. He married 1st Hindertje van der Horst who was born in 1826. She died of TB on her twenty-fifth birthday. Martin married 2nd Addina Bronlewe who was born in 1830 and died in 1899. Martin Swart was a master baker and merchant in Mark, Germany. In 1872 the Swart family came to America. OUR FOREFATHERS: ANCESTRY OF IRA CLIFFORD HAYNES

Ira Haynes, a popular hair stylist and barber in Manhattan, Kansas comes from an early day Kansas family who settled in northern Clay and southern Washington Counties in 1863. They endured harrowing experiences at the hands of the Indians.

1. John Haynes of Wiltshire, England is the first known ancestor of this branch of the Haynes family. He married 23 Oct 1575 Alice Lambert. This marriage record is in the Sherborne, Dorset register. Alice (Lambert) Haynes died in 1623. Her will was dated 2 Mar 1620/1 and proven by her son Walter Hayne, the executor, 2 Mar 1623/4. It is preserved among the Salisbury Wills, P. P. G., London. In it she mentions daughters Elizabeth Read, Susan Hayne, Rose Ivie and son-in-law Andrew Ivie, and a son Walter Hayne, besides grandchildren. (Is Susan Hayne a daughter?) If so, these are the children of John and Alice (Lambert) Haynes:
 - i Elizabeth, married _____ Read
 2. ii Walter
 - iii Rose, married Andrew Ivie
 - iv Susan.
2. Walter Haynes, a linen weaver, son of John and Alice (Lambert) Haynes was born about 1583 in England and died 14 Feb 1665 in Sudbury, Massachusetts at the age of 82. He married Elizabeth _____. Walter Haynes and family sailed from Northampton, England to the colonies 24 Apr 1638 on the ship 'Confidence.' They stopped for a short time in Watertown, Massachusetts then with others pushed on into the wilderness after having secured a grant of land from the General Council of Massachusetts. He helped found the town of Sudbury, Massachusetts in 1638. Walter was well thought of by the townspeople as evidenced by their electing him time and again to the council. Other members of the council and ship's list included Peter Noyes, Robert Darvell, Edmund and Robert Goodnow. The children of Walter and Elizabeth (_____) Haynes all born in England were:

John came to the colonies in 1637, returned to England with a favorable report to his father, and then came back with his parents. John Haynes was a deacon of the church. RECOLLECTIONS OF AN EARLY SETTLER

By Alvin Haynes of California

Excerpted from the Clyde Republican, Clyde, Cloud, Co., Kansas 19 Dec. 1910.

(This story, while very interesting, is too long to publish in its entirety in KANSAS KIN. The names of the Haynes neighbors, early settlers of northern Clay county, as given by Mr. Alvin Haynes, have been included because of their genealogical value).

In the year 1863, John G. Haynes with his family consisting of his wife Amanda, his sons: Walter, Harvey, Winslow, Alvin, Elza, and Charlie and his youngest daughter, Iva; also Mr. Thomas Bishop, left Monroe county, Illinois in the forepart of October.

Because of the political disturbances existing during war times, he felt it unsafe to cross Missouri, so they traveled by two wagons to Burlington, Iowa, thence to Nebraska City, Nebraska, thence southwesterly to Hanover, Kansas and from there to a place called Clifton where they located just north of the county line in Washington county.

In the spring of 1866, two men, John C. Roberts and T. B. Tallman came from Indiana wanting to hunt buffalo. Soon a hunting party was organized consisting of themselves, Lewis Cassel, William and John Collins, and Walter Haynes. When they failed to return at the time set their friends became alarmed and organized a searching party. Among this party were John G. Haynes, father of Walter, and his sons Harvey and Alvin. During the third afternoon while scouting along a creek, John G. and Alvin Haynes found some clothing of Walter's and the filing papers of Lewis Castle. This was the first trace of the hunting party or evidence of their having been killed.

The searching party returned home to prepare for an extended trip. On the third day out they found the ox wagon and slain oxen of the Collins brothers. They traced what must have been a running fight of blood and death for several miles. Later they found the bodies of the Collins brothers, Roberts and Tallman. Lewis Cassel and Walter Haynes had evidently broken through the Indian lines as they were found farther on near Little Cheyenne Creek about 12 miles from present Concordia. They were buried there as they had been dead two weeks. In the fall the government sent an escort of soldiers from Fort Riley to accompany their friends in bringing the bodies for reinterment in the cemetery north of Clifton, near Vining, now called Pleasant View.

Bailey by the Rev. Joseph Denison. Julia was born in 1828 in Connecticut and died in Manhattan, Kansas in 1911. Julia Ann Bailey was the daughter of Isaac Bailey who was born in 1790 and died in 1849 in Connecticut, a descendent of Thomas Bailey who came from England to New London, Connecticut in 1651 and Hannah (Lester) Bailey, a ninth generation descendent of Elder William Brewster of Plymouth Colony.

Julia was a graduate of East Greenwich Academy in East Greenwich, Connecticut in 1858. She was recruited by Isaac T. Goodnow to teach at the new Bluemont Central College in Manhattan as Assistant Principal in 1860.

Washington Marlatt earned a BA and MA degree from Ashbury University (now De-Pauw University) at Greencastle, Indiana. He was very pronounced in his opposition to slavery. He came to Kansas in May of 1856 walking alone from Leavenworth to Manhattan. He became a successful farmer, educator and minister of the gospel. In 1856 he bought a claim of 160 acres south of the Kansas River four miles east of Manhattan, but sold it after 1 1/2 years. In 1860 he purchased a quarter section in the Bluemont Townsite northwest of Manhattan which was later purchased by KSAC for experimental purposes. Later Charles L. and Abby Lillian Marlatt gave 160 acres of pasture land to KSAC for perpetual preservation as natural prairie land. This is now known as Marlatt Memorial Park, more popularly known as 'The Top of the World.'

Mr. Washington Marlatt took an active interest in community and college affairs; was the leading spirit in the organization of the Bluemont Farmers Club and Farmers Institute; helped organize the first Masonic Lodge and the Methodist Sunday School in which he was a teacher for years. He was a circuit preacher of the Wabaunsee circuit which included Wabaunsee County, a part of Davis County and all the state west. He authored hundreds of articles on frontier farm life.

Mr. Marlatt helped raise funds for the Bluemont Central College under the auspices of the Kansas and Nebraska Conference of the Methodist Church. Together with Isaac T. Goodnow, Joseph Denison, S. D. Houston, C. E. Blood, George S. Park, S. C. Pomeroy,

W. A. McCollom and T. H. Webb as incorporators they obtained a charter for the college in February 1858. Bluemont Central College opened in 1860 with Washington Marlatt as principal and Julia A. Bailey as assistant principal.

Hoping to have the state university located in Manhattan, the trustees of Bluemont Central College offered the land, building and equipment to the state. The gift was accepted by the legislature but vetoed by Gov. Charles Robinson who located the University in his home town of Lawrence. The same offer was made for a Land Grant College under the Morrrell Act. This was accepted and the Kansas State Agricultural College was established in 1863.

The children of Washington and Julia A. (Bailey) Marlatt, all born in Manhattan, were:

- i William Bailey, born 1862, died 1876
 9. ii Charles Lester, born 1863, married Helen Stuart Mackay-Smith.

He then bought the Blue Valley Manufacturing Company, a foundry and machine shop, located in Manhattan. He operated this establishment for over 40 years. Later he owned an oil company in Manhattan. For over 30 years he was active in the Methodist Church, Epworth League and Sunday School.
- Annie Elsie Lindsey, wife of Frederick A. Marlatt was born in 1877 in Bushnell, Illinois and died in 1966 in Lexington, Kentucky. She and Frederick were married in 1913. Her family moved from Illinois to Beatrice, Nebraska in 1881, and to Santa Rosa, California in 1888. She attended Normal School in San Jose, California after which she was an elementary school teacher for several years in that state. She then studied Domestic Science at Simmons College, Boston, before joining the faculty of Domestic Science at KSAC, in which capacity she served from 1908 to 1913.
