PIONEERS OF THE BLUESTEM PRAIRIE

Biographies of original settlers of Kansas Counties.

Clay	Riley
Geary	Wabaunsee	Washington
Marshall	Pottawatomie

Compiled by the RILEY COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY of Manhattan, Kansas

Endorsed by the KANSAS AMERICAN REVOLUTION BICENTENNIAL COMMISSION

Five hundred pages of authentic history and family records as told by the pioneers themselves and their descendants.

Is ANYBODY listening?

That has been a generation gap through the ages. But in Manhattan and the surrounding area, the answer comes in a resounding YES.

Yes is heard by all those who have been involved in working on the BOOK. The enthusiasm of those who have been reporting to the staff has made working on the book a rare privilege.

Yes is the answer of the older people who are delighted to have the opportunity to report their memories of their own pioneer days or those of their ancestors.

Yes is also the answer of the young who have found new pleasure in searching for information through visits with older people or through working in old records as pioneer days come alive.

And the work of the staff continues almost night and day as they meet each deadline so that the book will be ready for delivery in July.

All of the biographies for the seven counties are in. Some have been printed for final proofreading, some are being edited before being sent to the printers, and others are being typed for the final time. All will be at the printers by the middle of March. Indexing for each county sent to the printers has been completed.

Nearly 1,000 copies of the Pioneers of the Bluestem Prairie were sold at the prepublication price before the February 15 deadline. On April 1, the decision on the total number of books to order must be made. To be certain you will have a copy, place your order by the middle of March.

Because people have listened and talked and written their stories, and because many people have become involved in helping, the year-old dream of the Riley County Genealogical Society is rapidly approaching a reality.

UNIDENTIFIED PICTURES -- DO YOU KNOW THEIR NAMES?

A Californian recently sent pictures to use in "Pioneers of the Bluestem Prairie." Among them were these two "Visiting Cards," with the notation, "Unknown."

On the back of the pictures were advertisements of the photographer. The ad not illustrated included the statement:

"Established in 1859

Geo Burgoyne

Photographer

Manhattan, Kansas

The "1959 Registry of Voters, Riley Township" includes the name, George Burgoyne, ambrotypist.

(The Nov. 1975 Kansas Kin included information on both ambrotype and visiting card photography.)

SPRING PROGRAMS

"Serendipity" was the topic chosen by genealogist Grace Woldt for her March 22 talk to the Riley County Genealogical Society. She discussed information in many of the books in the library in her home. She referred to 5 volumes of Quaker records, a two-volume set of Revolutionary Soldiers buried in Indiana. She stressed the importance of checking all types of indexes in reference books, and of making use of the excellent Exchanges in the Library.

On April 26, Ray Keen, professor of horticulture and forestry at KSU, talked on "The Ecology of the Bluestem Prairie." He showed beautiful slides of native flowers and grasses in Kansas. Many of the slides were of the Hackberry Glen area near Manhattan.

At the April R.C.G.S. Board meeting, the resignation of Lyle Dixon was accepted, and Pat Hook was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The Board also accepted the resignation of Henrietta Darby as active librarian, but unanimously voted to recognize her 14 years of service in that position by naming her "Honorary Librarian."

PIONEERS OF THE BLUESTEM PRAIRIE

The PIONEERS OF THE BLUESTEM PRAIRIE is a reality. All copy has been sent to the printers. Application for copyright has been made. The Library of Congress Catalog Card number is 76-11926.

More than 1,200 copies have already been sold. Those of us who have seen the beautiful cover and copy are bursting with pride in our Bicentennial production.

We have been approved by the Kansas American Revolution Bicentennial Commission and by the National American Revolution Bicentennial Commission and have received $5,000 matching funds for assistance with the book and preservation of the original material. This has all been accomplished by the combined efforts of dozens of members, and all should be proud of doing their part in celebration of our nation's Bicentennial Celebration.

Earl Darby completed the surname index which contains approximately 6,000 different surnames. Alice Soldan indexed the county histories and lists of early teachers and postmasters. The only thing remaining to do is proofreading, and we are eagerly waiting the material from the printers so this can be accomplished.

The Riley County Genealogical Society Executive Board decided to order 3,000 copies of the book. We encourage anyone who has not ordered a book to do so soon. The price is now $15.00 + 53 tax for Kansas residents, + $1.50 for postage and handling if mailing is desired. Send money to Mrs. John P. Brown, 409 North 17th Street, Manhattan, KS 66502.

The printers have assured us that the books will be ready for delivery by July. Plans are now under way for a big distribution party. Watch for announcements of this party and be ready to offer your services.

L.D.S. Branch Library to Manhattan

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints has voted to establish a Branch Library in Manhattan, according to James Watson, a member of RCGS. The reported to Grace Woldt, genealogist, that the facilities will be at the church at 2812 Marlatt Avenue.

Several readers for microfilm and microfiche will be available for any one who is interested in securing information from the Salt Lake City Library. The Branch Library opening dates this fall will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson, 2806 James Avenue, were members of RCGS several years ago, and again joined when they returned to Manhattan from Iowa.

HONOR GRACE SHAW WOLDT, GENEALOGIST

Women in Communications, Inc., Manhattan, honored Grace Shaw Woldt by naming her Headliner of the Bicentennial year at the annual Matrix Table Dessert.

The committee selected her because of her interest and work in making the community aware of the importance of preserving early records of pioneers and communities. In 1961 she held an interest group sponsored by the Recreation Commission in her home. By 1963, this interest group was organized as the Riley County Genealogical Society, and through these years, she has inspired many hundreds of people to become interested in family and community research.

Mrs. Woldt has generously shared her personal library, and with the organization of the Society, she added a large room to her home with floor to ceiling shelving to hold the Society's purchases and gifts as well as her own.

Many members of RCGS attended the event to express their appreciation and pride in the recognition that their genealogist received.

MANHATTAN OBITUARIES AVAILABLE

With the February 1973 issue of KANSAS KIN, Frank Parshall started a new feature -- two pages of summaries of OBITUARIES from the local Manhattan daily Mercury. They were also included in the February, May, and August 1974 issues.

In November 1974, Mr. Parshall sent a report to the editor that the OBITs were accumulating several times faster than they could be used in the quarterly.

At that time only part of the OBITs were sorted. Now, nearly 1½ years later, Mr. Parshall has all of them sorted and posted on 8½ x 11" sheets. They are in alphabetical order, but he decided there also should be an index, now completed.

The Index has the surname of the deceased, the given name, year of birth, year of death, and the number of the page in the book of OBITUARIES on which the record is found.

This work covers the years from early 1957 to Jan. 1, 1976 -- 18½ years. He tells us that there are more than 1,500 pages of obituaries, and the index has 121 pages of two columns of names. There are 8,550 names of deceased individuals listed among the 4,055 surnames.

Mr. Parshall has filed these in Acco Grip binders, which take 20 inches of shelf space and weigh 30 pounds.

Because of their value to researchers in this area, Mr. Parshall has made arrangements to make this information available to the public, through microfilming. Both the INDEX and the OBITUARIES will be on one reel of 16 mm microfilm. He plans to have duplicates for sale at $15.00. Several libraries in the area have approved purchasing copies.

For additional information, write Frank Parshall, 1500 Pierre, Manhattan, KS 66502.

County of Otoe.

I hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of a page in an old family Bible showing family record of Charles W. Meeker. The first few pages of the Bible are missing but the same has the appearance of great age being bound in sheep, the pages frayed and yellow. The appearance of the writing shows that it was done years ago, the ink being faded and the writing old fashioned. There are no alteration or erasures appearing on the page. The entry concerning Sumner Hail Manzor is made partly in ink and partly in pencil and appears to have been made after the other entries (much later).

Witness my hand and Notarial Seal this 28th day of August, 1914.

The Society's "Project 76" has three levels of participation by members: The "Minutemen" prepare and donate to the Society a genealogical record or history, or donate a published history. "Bell-Ringers" contribute $17.76 to the fund, or donate a gift of comparable value. "Patriots" contribute $177.60 to the fund or donate to the genealogical room a gift of comparable value. Funds are to be used for the administration of the project or new acquisitions.

THE SCHUYLERITE, Rushville, IL. is published in Schuyler County for those who are Schuylerites or interested in the county. Marriages and obituaries for the year 1875 are included in Vol IV, Nos. 2 and 3.

From Our Readers

Cleo Sealy Renbarger (Mrs. H. W.) Topeka
Have just looked through a copy of Pioneers of the Bluestem Prairie and think it is terrific. I know that you spent considerable time and super effort on it, and it shows.

Ed H. Elling, Prairie Village

Well done! All of you folks in the Riley County Genealogical Society took on an enormously big project and completed it in a very interesting and informative book. I am sure that you have stimulated a lot of interest in genealogy in the families that are descendants of early settlers of Manhattan and the surrounding counties. The early history of Manhattan and other towns and counties in this 7-county area will be interesting reading for the generations to come in the next 100 years.

ABOUT OUR "PIONEERS"

On July 10, the RCGS held a distribution party for the just published "Pioneers of the Bluestem Prairie." The home of George and Dorothy Ward was a festive place with red, white and blue banners, iced tea and a large number of people coming by to pick up or purchase their copy of the biographical work from the festively decorated van. Many stayed to visit and to offer their compliments.

County commissioners were invited from Clay, Geary, Marshall, Pottawatomie, Riley, Wabaunsee and Washington Counties and were given a complimentary copy to be placed in their respective counties. Homer Socolofsky, president of the Kansas State Historical Society also accepted a copy for that library.

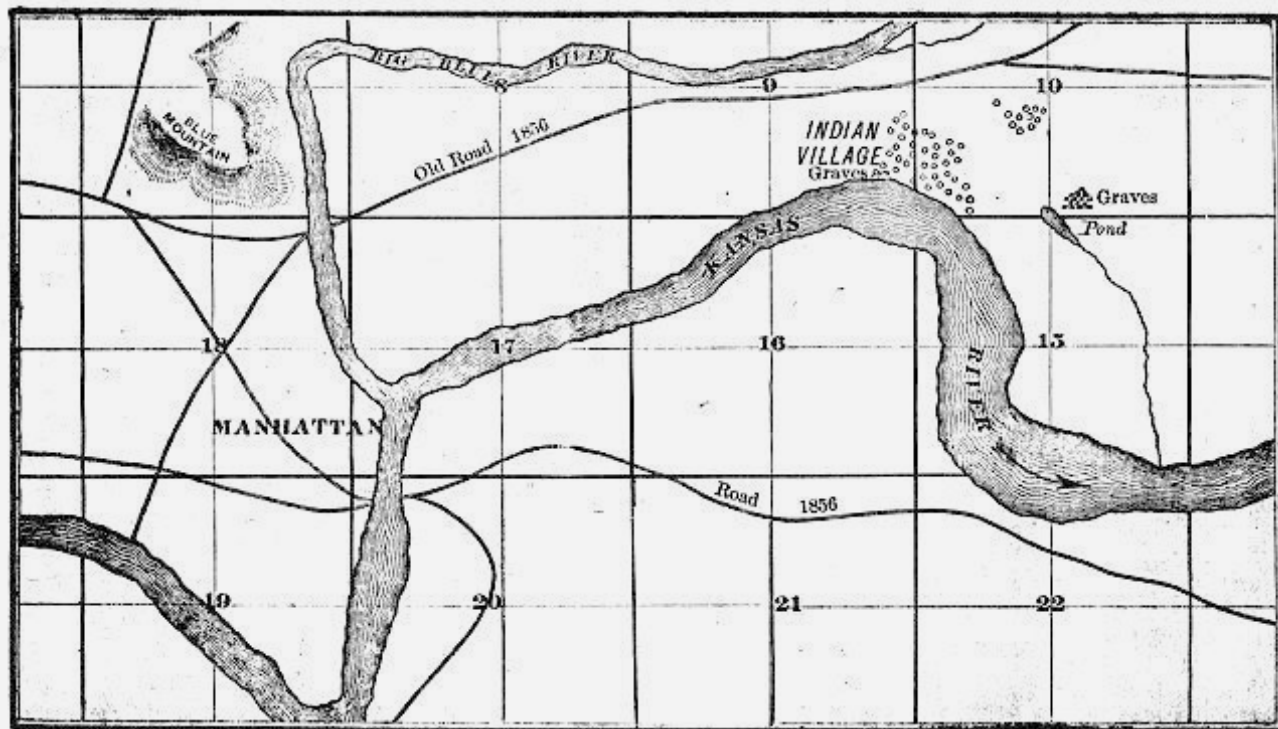

Many compliments have been received about our publication and for each of these we are grateful.

The original material submitted for the book will be kept by the society. Plans are in the making to have it microfilmed for use by the public. Should anyone wish to have a copy of the original material, the Society will copy it for $2.00 for up to five pages and 20¢ for each additional page.

More than 1600 books have been sold and donated. Books are still available by mail by writing to Mrs. John P. Brown, 409 North 17th, Manhattan KS, 66502.

Books may now be secured at the homes of the following: George Ward, Mrs. R. D. Olney, Mrs. John P. Brown, Mrs. John Roberts, Mrs. E.L. Sitz, or Miriam Dexter. Books are also available from Mrs. Grace Woldt at the R.C.G.S. Library in her home.

The price of the book is $15.00 plus 53¢ sales tax. If the books is to be mailed, please add $1.50 for handling costs.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF DANIEL HACHENBERG

Roll No. A4157.

In the name of God, I Daniel Hachenberg of the township of Greene, Clark Co. Ohio, being in sound mind and mindful of my mortality, do make the following statements, which are to be regarded as the last testament or will respecting the disposition of my property both Real & Personal.

First:- I give & bequeath to my beloved wife Mary Hachenberg all my property-both Real & Personal to have & to hold the same during her natural life and to receive all interests accruing therefrom.

Second: - Should my wife at any time deem it to be to her interest or to the interest of the children to sell the Real Estate, she is empowered hereby to do so, and give to the purchaser or purchasers a lawful deed for said property. In case sale is made, as just stated, then my wife, if desirous to make a distribution of the results of said sale, shall retain one half of the proceeds of said sale for her own maintainance during life, and only distribute the remaining one half among the children, hereafter mentioned, according to the proportions herein specified: Also, the Executors herein afterward mentioned shall in case such a sale is determined on, act in behalf of my wife and reinvest her portion to the best advantage.

Third: After the death of my wife, an equal distribution of the Estate & effects, after a sale made by the Executors, shall be made among my following named children, Viz: George P. Hachenberg, Susan married to Rev. William Yearick, Joseph Hachenberg, Elizabeth married to Alexander Kirkpatrick, Daniel Hachenberg and John Q.A. Hachenberg
each and all to share alike.

Divine Providence having removed my daughter Susan by death her portion is to be equally distributed among her children as they arrive at legal age; - and in case of the death of others, the portions of such deceased is to be equally divided among their children, or heirs. In reference to the portion of my daughter Elizabeth various considerations influence me to specify the following as the manner in which her portion shall be held, or in certain contingencies shall be invested. It is my express will & desire that my son Joseph, hereafter named as one of the Executors, shall hold in trust the portion devised to my daughter Elizabeth, paying her yearly legal interest for the sum held in trust, until her death, when her portion shall be equally divided among her children as they arrive at age, or in case of her death without leaving children to inherit her interest, said portion shall be then equally divided among my remaining children or their legal heirs. It is also my express wish that in the event of the death of her husband previous to her own, if she desires

August 1976 p. 37

the portion held in trust for her by my son Joseph to be invested in part or in whole to secure for herself and children a comfortable home, the said Trustee Joseph shall invest according to her desire, retaining however the property thus purchased in trust for her use during life and which property at her death shall be sold and apportioned among her children or heirs as previously stated.

FROM LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF CHRISTOPH BADER

Born in 1800 in Kirchheim, Wuerttemberg, Germany, Christoph Bader (Border) emigrated to America in 1832, and died in Strasburg, Ohio in 1856.

Contributed by his granddaughter, Mary E. Border, 538 Edgerton, Manhattan.

And now, my dearly beloved children, I ask and pray that you wait patiently and in peace until you get your share of the estate left to you. Do not envy those who get their share before you. Accept yours with thanks and the Lord will bless you.

Dear children, I admonish you to love and honor your good mother and treat her as becomes good Christian children. Love each other, amongst you as you love yourself and should you become separated from each other, do not neglect to pray for one another. Pray and strive for your salvation. Turn to your God in trouble. He has been mine and your Protector to this time. Use your tongue to his praise. Be dependent on your God and be ruled by his good spirit through your trials through life. Do not postpone your repentance till your old days. Have peace with all around you, support the church and its Ministers as you feel able and be good to widows and orphans.

This is the wish and desire from your father Christoph Bader born in Kirchheim May 10th 1800 in the Kingdom of Wuerttemberg and united in marriage with Rosina Klepfor. We were blessed with eleven children. One has gone before us in Eternity.

The Lord bless and protect you and through His Grace, bring us all together in His heavenly Kingdom. All honor and glory to Him now and to all Eternity. Amen. -- Christoph Bader Congratulations. That book was a masterpiece. Reta and I found not only the Rigneys but several more relatives and near relatives and many friends that we knew when we were younger. It was a very fine work, and I know it must have taken the cooperation of everyone in your Society.

Frances Schepp Wilkie (Mrs. L.E.), Omaha, NE

Would you pass on my many thanks to those who have been responsible for compiling the very fine book Pioneers of the Bluestem Prairie? I am very proud of it and my relatives and friends have appreciated it so much. It is such a beautiful book as well as being so informative. Thank all of you again. Each of you should have a special citation.

Portia Albert (Mrs. V.P.), Librarian, Kansas State Historical Society, Topeka

We were delighted to receive the copy of Pioneers of the Bluestem Prairie and we will be happy to add it to our permanent Kansas collection. We had been hearing very nice things about it and could hardly wait until Homer Socolofsky (President) brought our copy to us. You have done a fine piece of work and have every right to be extremely proud.

OUR PAST

How will we know it's us without our past?

The past is not the property of historians; it is a public possession. It belongs to anyone who is aware of it, and it grows by being shared.

It sustains the whole society, which always needs the identity that only the past can give. . .

We do not choose between the past and the future; they are inseparable parts of the same river.

Edwin Burke declared, "People will not look forward to posterity who never looked backward to their ancestors."

STATE OF KANSAS }

I, Samuel Cooper, County
Assessor in and for said county, do solemnly swear that the within Registration List contains the whole number of adults - male and female - in the Township of Pottawatomie, in said County, to the best of my knowledge and belief; so help me
God.

SAMUEL COOPER
County Assessor

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this 10th day of September, A.D. 1867
P.Y. BAKER, County Clerk

From Louisville Reporter, 24 May 1877

The obscure wilds of Pleasant Run have three drivers of the quill who keep us posted in the exciting events that occur in the community. Myers Valley shall sit in darkness no longer. . . Major Adams of Manhattan bought the cattle belonging to Arch Richards that were fed by W.R.Davis the past winter.
They were shipped last week.
Michael Floesch had 20 head of hogs drowned during the late flood. . . Mr. Blockolsky says that the flood has damaged him to the amount of $500 at least. The wash was worse on Pleasant Run than on Rock Creek, the bottom being longer and harrower.
Moses Davis, who was burned out a few months ago, is building a better residence than the one destroyed. That is the right way to meet our reverses.

Where is the man who said it couldn't rain in Kansas? If he is here, he ought to be convinced of his error.

BOOK REVIEWS

Books donated to R.C.G.S. will be reviewed in Kansas Kin.

Blue Ridge Mountain Kinfolks. By Larry Lang
Published by author, 1001 Lincoln St., Manchester, TN 37355. Hard cover, 335 p., 414 photographs, 2 types of ancestral flow charts. Price $15.00! (Gift of author.)

This book is a record of the ancestors, descendants, and relatives of the author and his wife, including Fisher-Gilbert-Hall-Hartley, Hill, King-Kirby-Lawson families, whose older generations lived in the Blue Ridge Mountains, and many of descendants live there today.

Each of the principal families and its descendant families has a separate section in the book. The earliest known ancestor is recorded first with a biographical sketch and pertinent early history, followed by successive generations.

The rather unusual, I believe, and very helpful index lists names of more than 7,500 persons upon whom information is given in the text, and includes 1,300 surnames with spelling variations. An informative page of instructions about using the index to find either an ancestor or descendant of anyone listed, and a page of explanations of abbreviations used are valuable.

The vital statistics, which are clear and concise, and the abundance of photographs make this work most helpful to anyone researching these families, as well as interesting to the casual reader. --Bess V. Gleason

As their Bicentennial project, the Central New York Genealogical Society of Syracuse NY is publishing the six-generation ancestor tables of their members. Book One, which includes tables for 96 members, has been received by RCGS. They estimate there will be at least five books. One of our members, Grace Shaw Woldt, is a charter member and has their publications from Vol. I No. 1.

HISTORY OF CARNAHAN CREEK AND VICINITY

Written by Lester Gilliford at the time of the Olsburge Bicentennial -- 1976

The history of Carnahan Creek, which is close to Olsburg, goes back to at least the year 1854.

Among the first settlers were the Tiltons. George Tilton once hauled freight from Fort Leavenworth to Fort Riley. His parents also lived around here. Their first home was across the creek on the farm where Gilbert Petersons now live. Arthur Tilton was a brother of George. He once owned some land that is now a part of the Gilliford farm but he sold it to Eliza and Seth Childs. Arthur Tilton died in the Civil War. Ernest and Stanley Weber are grandsons of George Tilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carnahan, Joseph, and Martha came to Kansas from Pennsylvania in 1855. Samuel's oldest son, Pollard, came the next year in 1856. Pollard and Joseph enlisted in the army at Marysville and served in the Civil War. The first Samuel Carnahan died in 1874. His son Pollard remained, and his son Samuel lived on the creek his entire life. Sam's son, Herbert Carnahan, and other families were removed from Carnahan Creek in 1958 for Tuttle Creek Reservoir. So the Carnahans were residents of the community for over 100 years.

Alexander Esdon and George Gilliford came to Carnahan Creek from Pennsylvania in 1867. George Gilliford bought part of the present Gilliford farm in 1868. Mr. Esdon owned a farm on Booth Creek. His wife was a sister of George Gilliford. This was his second marriage. He had raised his first family in Vermont. He had three daughters and two sons by his second marriage. He has some descendants today by his first wife and none by his second.

George King once lived on Carnahan Creek. He was the great grandfather of Orel Glunt. George was a veteran of the Civil War.

John Booth lived on the branch of Carnahan Creek known as Booth Creek. He was an early settler. His first wife was a Kershaw.

John Kershaw and family came from England in 1867. They once lived in a ravine off Booth Creek. He was drowned in the river at Rocky Ford in 1868.

Another of the earlier settlers was Josiah Hight who was also known as Cap Hight. He was a bachelor. He owned the farm where the Franklin Douglasses now live. He was born in New Hampshire.

The Alexander Fleming family were old time settlers around here. Another of the early settlers was the France family.

The first Samuel Carnahan was interested in getting the community started. The Carnahan Creek schoolhouse was built in 1869, and the Carnahan Creek United Presbyterian Church was built in 1879. Another schoolhouse was built in 1916. The first church burned in 1887 and was soon rebuilt.

One of the first ministers around here was a United Presbyterian named Rev. James P. Finney. Rev. Walter P. Currie, who had been doing home mission work in Missouri, came with his wife and five children in a buckboard drawn by a single horse in the year 1872. He was installed as pastor in 1876 and served until 1883. He resided in the community until 1902 when he moved to Sterling, Kansas, where he died. Mrs. Charles Gilliford was his daughter.

Other ministers served the Carnahan Creek Church as supply ministers. One minister, Rev. A.M. Reed, served the Church and the United Presbyterian Church in Manhattan from 1916 to 1946.

John and Mary Springer came to Carnahan Creek in 1868. She gave one acre of ground where the United Presbyterian Church stands today. They have a great many descendants living.

The Wilson Wreath family came and lived in a ravine a good many years ago across the creek from where the Gilbert Petersons live. Quite a few of the Wreath children were born there.

The Civil War veterans who are buried in the Garrison-Carnahan Creek Cemetery are George King, Franklin Glunt, John Minis, Billy Adkins, Wilson Wreath, William Grindal, Pollard Carnahan, O.S. Walker, George Springer, and James Harper.

World War I and II veterans in the cemetery are George Kristenson, Clarence Carnahan, Paul Carnahan, Paul Peterson, Earl Gregg, Amel Olson, Ernest Tilton, Raymond Tilton, Floyd Sites, August Wege, Lewis Thompson, and Delbert Inskeep.

The present Carnahan Creek U.P. Church quit having church services by January 1956.

The Harlings once owned the farm now owned by Earl Stoffer. The Harlings were grandparents of Mrs. Orville Burtis.

The Carnahan Creek School District No. 27 was dissolved around 1949. An auction was held, and the schoolhouse and lot were sold to a private owner.

Charles Currie built and operated the first telephone system around Olsburg. He lived on the farm where Dr. and Mrs. Thomas now live. He moved to a farm near Manhattan in 1908 and sold the telephone system.

George Gilliford's oldest son, Robert A. Gilliford, once taught school at Olsburg. He later studied to be a doctor and went back to Pittsburgh, PA, to practice medicine but was taken ill after a few years there and came back to Carnahan Creek where he died in 1919.

Grandfather Gilliford once had a place on his farm where he salted deer. One Fall a group of Indians came and camped there. They killed some deer and turkeys.

At one time mail from Manhattan was delivered to the Gilliford house where it was distributed around in the community. So the Gilliford house was known then as the Oak Grove post office.

Mrs. George Gilliford used to serve the community by acting as a midwife in delivering babies.

In the wintertime, on the Gilliford farm, they would go down to the creek and cut ice. They would then haul it by team and wagon to Olsburg to sell. Another task Grandfather Gilliland did was to get up at 4 a.m. and take a team with a wagon full of wood to Manhattan to sell.

The Tilton family once lived on the farm where the Robert Laflins now live.

When the Tuttle Creek Cam was built, most of the graves from the Garrison Cemetery were transferred to Carnahan Creek Cemetery. That took place in the fall of 1859. There were around 175 graves.

The Garrison people received money from the government. The church and the cemetery were turned over to the Methodist Conference for upkeep. The interest from the money was to maintain principally the cemetery. Every year, the Sunday before Decoration Day, the former Garrison people and friends meet at the church building for their picnic.

Carnahan Creek was in the past sometimes referred to as Pennsylvania Avenue as a good many of the early settlers came from Pennsylvania.

CONDUCTS WORKSHOP

Grace Shaw Woldt was asked by the Douglas County Genealogical Society to conduct a workshop at Lawrence, KS October 9. They requested that the 5-hour workshop concentrate on Ohio, Pennsylvania, Revolutionary War records and some material on handwriting in early records.

The Douglas County Genealogical Society was organized by some people who took the course, "Family Research -- Genealogy," over the Telenetwork through the Continuing Education Network of Kansas State University in August 1975.

Picture of George Williams Available

A picture of George Williams was given to Mrs. A. L. (Cleda Scott) Casey by Mrs. George Duncan of Pleasant Run Church community, Pottawatomie County. She found the picture with old family pictures and knows of no connection to her families -- Duncan and Hilliard. The picture was taken by the Burgoyne Photographer, established in 1859 in Manhattan. "Instantaneous process used exclusively," he advertised on the back. Picture will be given to anyone interested. It is in R.C.G.S. library.

Pleasant Run Items

If you call on Isaac Walker, he will show you over one of the best and most neatly kept farms in the county. In addition to his other improvements he has erected a very substantial frame granary, with stone basement, where he stows away, when not in use, his machinery and farming implements. Mr. W. not only has a neat building, but he has stored away in it "the one thing needful" in the shape of wheat, rye, oats, etc, where grasshoppers can never come.

Mr. Israel Cook, another old settler, has erected a substantial stone residence, and has it plastered. Uncle Israel says he has fared sumptuously the past winter.

Elder Thompson held religious services at the Jenkins school house last Sunday.

BOOK REVIEWS

Books donated to R.C.G.S. will be reviewed in Kansas Kin.

The Garlington Family. By Thesta Kennedy Scogland, 704 Mapleton Ave., Boulder, Colo 80302. Price $20.00.

This is an 873-page genealogy of the Garlington (Gyrlington) family researched and compiled by Mrs. Thesta Kennedy Scogland. The work deals principally with the descendants of Christopher Garlington, the immigrant, but historical background from Europe is included. The author has visited England, Scotland and Wales, examining official records, and visiting areas in which the Garlingtons were known to have lived.

The book is divided into two parts, each part containing two or more sections. The first gives the European background, an explanation of the coat-of-arms, the name Garlington, and the origin, and English ancestors.

Part II is the genealogical record of the five successive Christophers of this family. Section V of this part is given exclusively to the recording of the descendants of Christopher Garlington V.

This is an extensive work compiled primarily from original records and personal family information from many descendants of Christopher Garlington, the Immigrant. It is the first published genealogical record of this family, and because of its content of material from primary sources, it will be most valuable for those needing information on this family in the future.

BOY'S ENTERPRISE, 1864-5

In May, 1854, Joel K. Goodin and his family came to the Kansas Territory and located on land 4 miles south of Lawrence. He was appointed the first Justice of Peace of the Territory by Governor Reeder in 1855. He was active in the free state conventions of 1855, and was a delegate to the Big Springs convention and to the Topeka convention to consider forming a state government. He acted as vice president of the Topeka convention, and was appointed secretary of the executive committee which was the provisional government of the Territory. He served until the inauguration of the state government under the Constitution and was later elected State Representative of Douglas County.

In 1864 while they lived in old Minneola in Franklin County, Joel's son Charles, then about 13 years old, began publishing a weekly newspaper, "The Kansas Weekly News Journal." It was 4 ages, 6 inches square, and provided the residents of Franklin County their only news of the community and the progress of the War.

The Masthead listed C.W. Goodin, Editor & Proprietor, and D.L. Welch, Local Editor. The June 11, 1864 issue included a story dated May 22, Baldwin City, signed D.L.W., then the age of Charles.

YOUNG AMERICA

At the commencement of this, a NEW YEAR, we present to you the "YOUNG AMERICA," for your support and favor.

It is the only PAPER edited and published by a Boy, in the State, or in the West that we are aware of. Our little Sheet is issued Weekly and has reached its 37th number. We make it up and strike it off at moments when most boys choose to be idle, or at play. We are scarce in our 'teens' write our own editorials; set up our type; make up the form & do our own Press work; have never worked an hour in any office, save our own, nor been taught by any one the great "mysteries of the art of printing.

We attend school daily, and are endeavoring to lay by a good store of Knowledge for full-grown Manhood.

We are anxious to increase our

We ask parents to encourage us; the Youth to aid us; and every one who believes that a busy moment is better than an idle hour, to subscribe for our LITTLE SHEET.

Address, CHARLES W. GOODIN.
Baldwin City, Kansas,

The Kansas Legislature.

The next Legislature of Kansas will convene at Topeka, on Tuesday 10th inst. There probably is no body of men in any State, who have, or may during the present winter assemble, who are more intensely loyal to the Government, than the present Senators, and Representatives of Kansas. Doubtless, weighty matters will come before these servants of the people: and high hopes are entertained that they will have an eye to see, and a will to carry forward the great interests of our young State. We have been to have a such, are endeavoring to look closely after an Education; our little paper is made up and issued, in moments too many boys and youth spend in idleness."

On April 24, 1865, Vol. I, No 50, large type was used to announce Lincoln's death.

"In the deaths of Lincoln and Seward our nation has lost the best rulers she ever had." (The following issue had the report, "Secretary Seward is recovering."

"J.W. Booth is the murderer of Lincoln."

"GONE! A mighty nation weeps in anguish to-day because of the loss of two of her best men. Drear and lowering is the future of America! Her hopes are dashed down. . . . Can a man be found that can perform the Presidential duties with the firmness of him who has gone!? The heart ceases to beat and the blood freezes at the dreadful news."

The exchange list of "The Kansas Weekly News Journal in 1864 included these papers: The State Journal, the Kansas Tribune, The Wyandotte Gazette, the Baldwin Observer, the Troy Investigator, the Manhattan Independent, the Leavenworth Bulletin, the Jeffersonian of Grasshopper Falls in Jefferson County, the Kansas City Journal of Commerce, the Border Sentinel, the Burlington Register, the Oskaloosa Independent, the Fort Scott Monitor, Council Grove Press, and Osage Chronicle.

The July 2, 1864 issue, had these comments: "Marysville and Emporia.-- We were happy to receive the Emporia News and the Marysville Union this week."

"The Neosho Register; this paper has noticed us, yet has visited our office but once. Does Mr. Payne like to encourage enterprise in boys?"

And in August, "The Paola Crusadeer was suspended in August 1864."

"There are now three papers in Coffey County, in Franklin but one."

Apparently school work took more time, and "The Young America " also was suspended later in 1865.

Paul McCune, a great grandson of Charles Goodin, Rt. #1, Billings, MO 65610, has the original papers. He shared them with Jean Davis of Battle Creek, MG, who made copies available to Miriam Dexter. The three are descendants in different lines of Moses Sr (1747-1836) and Jane (Hall) (1750-1841) Goodin.

We recall the PAST that we may build in the PRESENT a more inspired FUTURE together.

IRISH ANCESTORS

The CHICAGO GENEALOGIST, Vol IX, No. 1, pps 13-17, has an interesting article on "Immigration, Irish Style." Life in England before and during the potato famine in 1845 was described, as was travel conditions to and life in the United States. ILLINOIS STATE GENEALOGICAL QUARTERLY, Vol. VIII, No. 3, pps 139-40, includes a copy of a talk given by Mrs. John F. McGuire, "A Tribute to Margaret Dickson Falley."

Mrs. Falley spent years researching and publishing materials and sources available for research in Ireland.

Alternate sources for destroyed records are discussed. For example although fire destroyed many records, wills from 1708 to the present are recorded.

Another source is "Hearth Money Tax Rolls" created when a tax was levied on each fireplace in a dwelling.

Their ancestors and descendants Genealogy of the Griffin family starting with John Griffin, NY City 1682; giving proof of three generations prior to Gershom Griffin (1743-1831); carrying down all known descendants through NY and OH to the present.
